Program Sheet

Computer Information Systems (CIS)

College of DuPage and Lewis University 3+1 Bachelor of Science Degree Program in Computer Science

A convenient, affordable and streamlined approach to earn the Bachelor of Science in Computer Science degree.

Who can enroll in the program?

- Students who have completed an Associate in Applied Science degree in Computer Information Systems-Application and Technical Support Specialist and have taken the necessary additional general education courses.
- New students interested in pursuing a Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Science offered by Lewis University at College of DuPage.
- Students who graduated from College of DuPage and went elsewhere can be considered for admission for this 3+1 program if they complete any necessary prerequisites.

Program Overview

- All classes are held at the College of DuPage Glen Ellyn campus.
- The 33 Lewis University credit hours are offered at a reduced tuition rate.
- For students earning an Associate in Applied Science in Computer Information Systems-Application and Technical Support Specialist, the program consists of 128 credit hours, including 95 credit hours of College of DuPage courses and 33 credit hours or Lewis University coursework.

(Academic Plan on back.)

The financial advantage

With the 3+1 program, students pay College of DuPage tuition rates for College of DuPage coursework, and the 33 Lewis University credit hours are offered at a significantly reduced rate, making the goal of continuing their education a reality for more students. This program exemplifies College of DuPage's mission to make education more affordable for its students while stressing academic quality, first-class faculty and extraordinary learning environments.
