How Rehabilitation Services Helps Students with Disabilities Transition to College and Work

Jim Knauf

DHS- Division of Rehabilitation Services

Let's Do a quick survey...

Who in the room personally knows:

- Someone who uses a wheelchair
- Someone who uses a cane/walker
- Someone who has a significant vision loss
- Someone who uses hearing aids
- Someone with an intellectual disability
- Someone with autism

Let's Keep Going

Who knows someone with:

- An amputation
- Arthritis
- Depression; Anxiety; PTSD
- Learning disabilities (Dyslexia; Auditory Processing Disorder; ADHD; Memory disorders, etc.)
- Neuromuscular Diseases (MS, ALS, MD)
- Seizure Disorder
- Diabetes
- Cancer
- SSI or SSDI income
- an IEP or 504 Plan in school

What is “disability?”

1. It's not always what you think it is
2. It can be congenital (born with) or acquired (accident, injury, illness.)
3. It's not only the kids in “special classes”
4. It can be observable or hidden
5. It can be temporary or permanent
6. It does not discriminate (age, gender, race, sexual orientation etc.)

Division of Rehabilitation Basis for Eligibility

An individual shall be eligible to receive services through the VR Program if he/she:

- a) is an individual who has a disability as determined pursuant to Title II and Title XVI of the Social Security Act (42 USC 401 et seq. and 1381 et seq.) and desires to achieve an employment outcome; OR

b) is an individual who meets all of the following:

1) is determined by qualified personnel to have a physical or mental impairment that constitutes or results in a substantial impediment to employment for the individual;

2) is determined by a qualified vocational rehabilitation counselor employed by DHS-DRS to require vocational rehabilitation services to prepare for, secure, retain, or regain employment consistent with the customer's unique strengths, resources, priorities, concerns, abilities, capabilities, interests, and informed choice; and

3) is presumed to be able to benefit from vocational rehabilitation services in terms of an employment outcome.

What do you think?

DRS	People you know
Physical or mental impairment that constitutes or results in a substantial impediment to employment	?
Requires services to prepare for, secure, retain, or regain employment	?
Able to benefit from vocational rehabilitation services in terms of an employment	?

What next?

- Qualified Rehabilitation Counselor uses criteria (slide 6) and justifies the need for customer assistance to find and get a job

Other Services

If you need services that are not exempt, a financial analysis is completed. If under a pre-set balance, services will be at no cost.

If over, dependent on income, there is a sliding scale level of participation.

Standard room and board at a university or residential component of a college will be expected to contribute toward living and food expenses (increased cost.)

DRS Services

- All services are planned in advance
- All services are individualized base on customer needs
- Counseling and Guidance
- Information and Referral
- Equipment
- Books and Supplies
- Training
- College and Graduate Training
- Medical and Psychological Services
- Etc., Etc., Etc.

Now that I have your attention...

What is Vocational Rehabilitation?

(aka...What's the catch?)

- No catch
- Originally started at federal level in 1918 after WWI to assist disabled veterans
- Expanded to civilians including people with blindness, mental illness or intellectual disabilities

Vocational Rehabilitation

- The Rehabilitation Act Amendments in 1973 promoted employment and independent living for people with disabilities. Equal access to federal and federally funded facilities was included.
- Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) civil rights legislation prohibiting discrimination on the basis of disability in employment and provision of equal access.

Vocational Rehabilitation

- Title IV of WIOA amended Title I of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.
- WIOA is designed to strengthen and improve the nation's public workforce development system by helping Americans with barriers to employment, including individuals with disabilities, achieve high quality careers and helping employers hire and retain skilled workers. (The reason we are here.)

In Illinois

Six Divisions of the Department of Human Services

- Division of Rehabilitation Services includes
 - Field Services (VR)
 - Blind Services (VR)
 - Home Services
 - Residential Schools
 - Illinois School for the Deaf
 - Illinois School for the Visually Impaired
 - Illinois Center for Rehabilitation and Education
 - Disability Determination Services
