

Become a Gateway Scholar

Take college classes at half the price for up to four semesters

The Gateway Scholars program is designed to help students like you move on to college and earn your certificate or degree.

If you have taken classes to prepare for your high school diploma or learn English at City Colleges of Chicago, you may be able to take college credit courses for up to four academic terms at half price.

Students in the Gateway Scholars program can get other kinds of help, like:

- Free loaner laptops to do schoolwork.
- Childcare for young children at most colleges.
- Food pantries at each college with free, healthy food.
- Tutoring services to help you do well in class.
- Access to the Wellness Center for counseling and other health services.

CITY COLLEGES®

To become a Gateway Scholar, you must:

- Complete one or more English as a Second Language (ESL), Language Arts, or Math classes in the Adult Education Department at City Colleges.
- ✓ Qualify for in-district tuition.
- ✓ Have a high school diploma OR plan to earn your high school diploma before your first term earning college credit.
- × Students with F-1, F-2, J-1, or J-2 visas are not eligible for the Gateway program.
- × United States citizenship is not required for the Gateway program.

How to Apply:

To learn more about becoming a Gateway Scholar, visit www.ccc.edu/adulted and click on the blue Gateway Program button on the left. Fill out the interest form there and reach out to the transition specialist at your college if you need help.
